Take the Acadian Coastal Drive up or down the coast. It's a beautiful drive with so much to see and so many great places to visit. Go to www.tourismnewbrunswick.ca/roadtrips.ca for more info.

The following are just some of the wonderful businesses and places along the southern end of the Acadian Coastal Drive and surrounding area. Note that the social media icons will take you to their accounts if reading this online. Otherwise simply search for them on each social media platform.

Janice Byer Photography
NB-955, Little Shemogue

www.janicebyerphotography.ca

Vacation memories are the best souvenir to invest in. We can get as formal as you want with posed photos but I also love to take the genuine, candid moments. Photo shoots are generally casual, fun, & relaxed. Once you see those true moments in a form that will live forever, the feeling is priceless. Much better than a t-shirt souvenir. If you are planning to come to this area of south-eastern, New Brunswick (or not too far away from here), let's chat about how I can help you have a lasting memory of your time here.

Loella's Country Market

Places To Visit

A Little Further Away...

There is soooo much to see in New Brunswick aside from those listed above. You may need a longer vacation 😊

Here are just a few other places you should consider adding to your schedule:

Hopewell Rocks Provincial Park
131 Discovery Rd, Hopewell Cape

www.parcsnbparks.info

For thousands of years, the massive tides of the Bay of Fundy have been patiently sculpting their masterpiece in Hopewell Cape, New Brunswick. With over twenty free-standing sea stacks peppered along two kilometers of shoreline, no Atlantic Canadian vacation is complete without experiencing these icons. Sturdy footwear is recommended for exploring our trails and shoreline. Be sure to check our tide times prior to your visit to see when it will be safe to explore our Ocean Floor.

Kouchibouguac National Park
186 NB-117, Kouchibouguac

www.parks.canada.ca

Warm beaches and vibrant estuaries highlight the beauty of Kouchibouguac National Park, situated on unceded Mi'gmaq territory. This park also features rich forests and wetlands, under the serene skies of a Dark Sky Preserve, inviting a connection with nature and history.

Akadi Lumina
57 Acadie St., Bouctouche

www.akadilumina.ca

An enchanted night walk into the heart of a vibrant culture. 1.5km forest pathway of lighting effects, projections and soundscapes that will immerse you in a unique story world. May 16 to October 18, 2025

Places To Visit

Irving Eco-centre, la Dune de Bouctouche 1876 NB-475, Saint-Édouard-de-Kent

www.idirving.com/en/sustainability/parks/irving-eco-centre

Located on the Northumberland Strait of New Brunswick, just minutes north of the town of Bouctouche, this sand dune stretches 12 km across Bouctouche Bay, a result of the constant action of wind, tides and sea currents since the last ice age. Every major storm, its shape changes. Park visitors can use the boardwalk stretching along the dune to explore both the dune's wilderness and its salt marsh without endangering the sensitive ecosystems. A rich variety of marine and aquatic plants and animals, especially shorebirds and other migratory birds, make the dune their habitat. A bird photographers dream!

Fundy National Park
8642 NB-114, Alma

www.parks.canada.ca

Experience the world's highest tides along the Bay of Fundy. Explore the bay as you paddle in a kayak as the waters rise up to 12 m or more, walk the otherworldly ocean floor at low tide, or venture inland where trails lead to waterfalls deep in Acadian forests.

Fundy's Cape Enrage
650 Cape Enrage Rd., Waterside

www.capeenrage.ca

Located on the Bay of Fundy, Cape Enrage offers one of the most spectacular views of the world's highest tides from its towering cliffs and has been a light station and fog alarm since 1838. Along with its natural beauty, Cape Enrage also offers family-friendly adventures! Come try our 183-metre (600 foot) zip line, our 46-metre (150 foot) rappel wall, or come challenge yourself and your friends in our obstacle course. At the Cape House Restaurant, look out over the magnificent Bay of Fundy from the dining room or the deck (weather permitting!) of our historic Cape House. The Gallery at the Cape is proud to feature a great selection of works by local artists and artisans; paintings, carvings, glass work and more.

Places To Visit
